Stanford Family Mausoleum
The mausoleum, guarded by four marble sphinxes, is the final resting place of the Stanford Family.

Stanford Family Statue
Adjacent to the mausoleum, the Stanford Family statue was cast in bronze in 1899 by Larkin G. Mead.

Angel of Grief
The Angel of Grief, located north of the mausoleum, is a memorial to Jane Stanford’s youngest brother, Henry Clay Lathrop. Please note: the Angel of Grief statue is currently undergoing repairs.

Arizona Cactus Garden
The garden, located on the south side of the mausoleum, was designed for Jane and Leland Stanford by landscape architect Rudolf Ulrich between 1881 and 1883.

Stanford Family Carriage
The Brewster C- Spring Landau carriage was the most formal of the three carriages owned by the Stanfords. President Benjamin Harrison rode in it when he visited the West Coast in 1891.
